

UNDER CASE GOES TO JURY AT LATE HOUR

James Allen Acquitted on Grounds of Incompetent Circumstantial Evidence.

The fate of James and Dominick Lorenzo was placed in the hands of the jury in circuit court late this afternoon. Circumstantial evidence has been given to the jury as to the guilt or innocence of the brother-in-law in the matter of the killing of Angelo Frankville, the night of Aug. 14, in Moline.

"DANDERINE"

Girls! Save Your Hair!
Make It Abundant!

Immediately after a "Danderine" massage, your hair takes a new luster and wondrous beauty, appearing twice as heavy and plentiful, because each hair seems to stay thicker. Don't let your hair stay lifeless, colorless, plain or scraggly. You, too, want lots of long, strong, beautiful hair.
A 35-cent bottle of delicious "Danderine" freshens your scalp, checks dandruff and tinting hair. This stimulating "beauty-cream" gives to thin, dull, fading hair that youthful brightness and abundant thickness—All druggists!

James Allen, accused in slaying of Angelo Frankville, was acquitted on grounds of incompetent circumstantial evidence. The jury, after deliberating for several hours, returned a verdict of acquittal. The evidence was circumstantial and the jury was not satisfied. The defense attorneys based their case on the fact that the evidence was incompetent and that the jury should have acquitted.

Charges Chief.
He also accused the chief of police with doing everything within his ability to inveigle the defendants into a confession by telling each one separately that the other had acknowledged guilt for the crime. He further directed attention to the testimony of Chief De Jaeger to the effect that no caps were found in Jim's belongings when in reality two were uncovered, both of which were of grayish color, as Jim had maintained he possessed.

Attorney Allen questioned the competency of the testimony given by Mrs. Frankville to the effect that she recognized the cap as the property of Jim and that Dominick had declared to her and many others of his intentions to kill Angelo. Mr.
Allen pointed out that Mrs. Frankville had admitted that she had not seen Jim for at least a year prior to the crime, and that it was about that long previous that Dominick had made the statement to her that he would kill Angelo. No witnesses in support of her testimony that Dominick had made these threats against Angelo to others were produced.

Accused Dead Man.
For a brief time yesterday afternoon Jim De Lorenzo, younger of the brothers on trial for the murder of Angelo Frankville, forgot his stubborn resistance to the rapid fire cross examination of Assistant State's Attorney Eagle and burst forth in a sudden show of emotion against the man with whose death he is charged. The witness had steadfastly denied that he had entertained any hard feelings against Angelo, even after that man had done things which had not met with the favor of his brother Dominick. The state had bombarded him with a multitude of questions intended to wear down this defense of the witness in an effort to prove a motive for the crime, but without any degree of success.

In a sudden display of emotion, Jim employed a mixture of Italian and English in denouncing Angelo, the murdered man.
"No Try to Kill!"
"He try to kill my wife; he try to kill my children, and now he try to kill me!" he cried, his eyes flushing as only the eyes of a Sicilian-born Italian can flash. His arms waved in wild posturing as the defendant sought to convey an impression of wrong done to him.

For the most part Jim's testimony coincided with that given by his brother Dominick. He insisted that neither had left their home in Silvia on the night of the crime from the hour of 8 o'clock until 3 o'clock in the morning, when they arose to go to the depot. He showed no hesitancy in trying on the cap that was found near the scene of the crime, but maintained that he had never seen it until it had been shown to him at the Moline police station, after he had been brought back from Beloit.

Start Arguments.
Concluding arguments were started late yesterday afternoon. State's Attorney Eagle opened for the state. Arrangement was taken until morning. It was expected that the case would be in the hands of the jury before the morning session had advanced to any length.

Eagle summed up the case against the defendants by laying emphasis on the testimony relating to the cap and the fact of a .33 caliber revolver being found in the possession of Dominick when arrested in Beloit. Attention was directed to the fact that the gun has a capacity of five bullets, and it was this number of shots that were drilled into the body of Angelo. Further, it was contended by the state that the motive had been clearly established in the bad blood that existed. Emphasis was placed on the recent ment which a Sicilian entertains for those who incur his displeasure, it being characterized as a trait peculiar to the race.

Escaped an Operation

There is nothing in the world a woman so much fears as a surgical operation. Often they are necessary, but often not; and many have been avoided by the timely use of that good old-fashioned root and herb remedy Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. If you are suffering from some dread ailment peculiar to your sex, why not profit by the experience of these two women whose letters follow?

These Two Women Saved from Operations.
Cedar Rapids, Ia.—"After the birth of my last child I had such painful spells they would unfit me entirely for my housework. I suffered for months and the doctor said that my trouble was organic ulcers and I would have to have an operation. That was an awful thing to me, with a young baby and four other children, so one day I thought of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and how it had helped me years before and I decided to try it again. I took five bottles of Vegetable Compound and used Lydia E. Pinkham's Sanative Wash and since then I have been a well woman, able to take care of my house and family without any trouble or a day's pain. I am ready and thankful to swear by your medicine any time. I am forty-four years old and have not had a day's illness of any kind for three years." Mrs. H. KORNIA, 617 Ellis Blvd, Cedar Rapids, Iowa.
Sandusky, Ohio.—"After the birth of my baby I had organic trouble. My doctor said it was caused by too heavy lifting and I would have to have an operation. I would not consent to an operation and let it go for over a year, having my sister do my work for me as I was not able to walk. One day my aunt came to see me and told me about your medicine—said it cured her of the same thing. I took Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and used Lydia E. Pinkham's Sanative Wash and they have cured me. Now I do my own housework, washing and ironing and sewing for my family and also do sewing for other people. I still take a bottle of Vegetable Compound every spring for a tonic. I recommend your medicine to others who have troubles similar to mine and you can use my letter if you wish."—Mrs. PAUL PAPERFUSE, 1825 Stone St., Sandusky, Ohio.
